

Correct any word order mistakes in the sentences below

1. Never I can remember your address.

2. Normally we take our holiday in August.

3. I go to the gym three afternoons a week.

4. He sleeps hardly ever more than five hours.

5. She never is in her office when I phone.

6. Always you must read the instructions.

7. Once in a while we buy a take-away meal.

8. The company every year holds a staff party

Below are some findings from a survey about the media. Choose the correct expression in the brackets to complete the sentences below

1. Most older people listen to the radio _____ (in the mornings / usually)
2. People under 20 _____ listen to the radio (about once a week / seldom)
3. _____ teenagers play computer games in their bedroom (generally / always)

4. Forty-two per cent of retired people read a newspaper _____ (hardly ever / every day)
5. Fewer than five per cent of people _____ watch television (never / only once a week)
6. More women than me listen to the radio _____ (always / frequently)

Make true sentences about yourself using frequency expressions and the prompts below

1. Listen/news/radio

2. Cook / meal

3. play tennis

4. do exercise

5. tell / joke

6. do nothing

Using adverbs of frequency describe a typical day in your life. Prepare a short presentation, remember you will need to talk for at least 1-2 minutes