

Problem & Solution Essay (Independent Exercise)

Grade 11 English

The Middle East has experienced many environmental concerns lately but the one that affects the most people is the availability of clean water.

What are some of the reasons why clean water is becoming less available and how can we improve the availability of clean water in the Middle East?

